

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
[February 28, 2017]

Contact:
Amy Meuers
Chief Executive Officer
National Youth Leadership Council
(651) 999-7363 / ameuers@nylc.org

New Board Members Announced

ST. PAUL, Minn. (February 28, 2017) —The National Youth Leadership Council is pleased to announce the appointment of five new members to the Board of Directors and the addition of one honorary member.

Appointees include: Kevin Days, Sustainable Futures Public Charter Schools; Andrew Furco, University of Minnesota; Greg Herder, Mounds View Public Schools; Antwayn Hunter, Intermediate District 287; Nontombi Naomi Tutu (honorary), Nozizwe Consulting; and Shira Woolf-Cohen, New Foundations Charter School.

“The NYLC Board of Directors is delighted to welcome a group of new board members, including honorary board member Naomi Tutu, who bring deep expertise and experience that will enhance NYLC's longstanding work in developing school and community partnerships for youth leadership and civic engagement,” said Board Chair Amy Cohen. “When young people learn about civic and community issues and take positive action based on that knowledge, we strengthen local communities today and in the future. We are fortunate to have brought new members to our organization who will heighten NYLC's ability to meet that commitment.”

New members will begin their service March 14, 2017.

###

About NYLC

At the National Youth Leadership Council, we strive for a world where all young people are valued and called on to lead. With passion, creativity, and ingenuity, young people can address world issues while strengthening academic and learning outcomes through service-learning. To that end, we provide programs and services that develop young leaders, support educators, and advance the field of service-learning. Visit www.nylc.org to learn more about NYLC and service-learning.